1. INTRODUCTION

This manual was prepared in accordance with section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 and to address the requirements of the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 and applies to Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd as identified below.

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 (the "Act") was enacted on 3 February 2000, giving effect to the constitutional right in terms of section 32 of the Bill of Rights contained in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa 108 of 1996 (the "Constitution") of access to any information held by the state and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.

In terms of section 51 of the Act, all Private Bodies are required to compile an Information Manual ("PAIA Manual").

Where a request is made in terms of the Act, the body to whom the request is made is obliged to release the information, subject to applicable legislative and / or regulatory requirements, except where the Act expressly provides that the information may be adopted when requesting information from a public or private body.

Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd endorses the spirit of the Act and believes that this manual will assist requesters in exercising their rights.

3. BACKGROUND TO AUTOMA MULTI STYRENE (PTY) LTD

Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd is an established company since 1972 and is the leading manufacturer of closed cell foam products and insulation boards in expanded polystyrene, Neoport®, expanded polypropylene, PIOCELAN and Polyphen® fire resistant insulation foam.

The company is active in inter alia, the building and construction-, agricultural-, automotive-, fresh produce and fishery-, hospitality, food & beverage-, medical-, markets.

This company is furthermore an active member of the Polystyrene Association of South Africa, as well as in possession of various ISO quality control accreditations.

4. PURPOSE OF THIS MANUAL

The purpose of PAIA is to promote the right of access to information, to foster a culture of transparency and accountability within Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd by giving the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to exercise and protect their rights.

In order to promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in relation to public and private bodies. Section 9 of the Act recognises that the right to access information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to

- limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
- commercial confidentiality; and
- effective, efficient and good governance and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

This PAIA Manual complies with the requirements of guide mentioned in section 10 of the Act and recognises that upon commencement of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013, that the appointed Information Regulator will be responsible to regulate compliance with the Act and its regulations by private and public bodies.

A copy of this manual is available for inspection on the Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd website in PDF (Portable Document Format) version at www.automa.co.za or on request from the designated contact person (Information Officer) referred to in this manual.

Copies of this manual are furthermore readily available at the head office of Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd during office hours.

6. THE INFORMATION (and DEPUTY INFORMATION) OFFICER (SECTION 51(1)(B))

The Act prescribes the appointment of an Information Officer for bodies / entities where such Information Officer is responsible to, inter alia, assess request for access to information. The head of a private body (in our case, the CEO) fulfils such a function in terms of section 51.

The Information Officer appointed in terms of the Act also refers to the Information Officer as referred to in the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013. The Information Officer oversees the functions and responsibilities as required for in terms of both this Act as well as the duties and responsibilities in terms of section 55 of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 after registering with the Information Regulator.

The Information Officer may appoint, where it is deemed necessary, a Deputy Information Officer, as allowed in terms of section 17 of the Act as well as section 56 of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013. This is in order to render Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd as accessible as reasonably possible for requesters of its records and to ensure fulfilment of its obligations and responsibilities as prescribed in terms of section 55 of the Protection of Personal Information Act of 2013.

The Information Officer has subsequently delegated his powers to the Deputy Information Officer as indicated below in terms of the Act to manage and handle all requests on Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd's behalf and to ensure that the requirements of the Act are administered in a fair, objective and unbiased manner.

All requests for information in terms of this Act must be addressed to the Information Officer, or his / her Deputy.

In the context of this manual, reference to the Information Officer will therefore automatically include reference, and apply to, the Deputy Information Officer as well.

* Although we have used our best endeavours to supply a list of applicable legislation, it is possible that this list may be incomplete. Whenever it comes to our attention that existing or new legislation allows a Requester access on a basis other than as set out in PAIA, we shall update the list accordingly. If a Requester believes that a right of access to a record exists in terms of other legislation listed above or any other legislation, the Requester is required to indicate what legislative right the request is based on, to allow the Information Officer the opportunity of considering the request in light thereof.

It is further recorded that the accessibility of documents and records may be subject to the grounds of refusal set out in this PAIA Manual.

14. ACCESS FOR RECORDS HELD BY AUTOMA MULTI STYRENE (PTY) LTD

Prerequisites for Access by Personal / Other Requester:

Records held by Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd may be accessed by requests only once the prerequisite requirements for access have been met.

A requester is any person making a request for access to a record of Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd. There are two types of requesters:

a. Personal Requester:

- i. A personal requester is a requester who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the requester.
- ii. Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd will voluntarily provide the requested information, or give access to any record with regard to the requester's personal information. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged.

b. Other Requester:

i. This requester (other than a personal requester) is entitled to request access to information on third parties.

ii. In considering such a request, Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd will adhere to the provisions of the Act. Section 71 requires that the Information Officer take all reasonable steps to inform a third party to whom the requested record relates of the request, informing him/her that he/she may make a written or oral representation to the Information Officer why the request should be refused or, where required, give written consent for the disclosure of the Information.

Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd is not obliged to voluntarily grant access to such records. The requester must fulfil the prerequisite requirements, in accordance with the requirements of the Act and as stipulated in Chapter 5; Part 3, including the payment of a request and access fee.

15. DETAIL TO FACILITATE A REQUEST FOR ACCESS TO A RECORD OF AUTOMA MULTI STYRENE (PTY) LTD (SECTION 51(1)(E))

The requester must comply with all the procedural requirements contained in the Act relating to the request for access to a record. No request shall be accepted telephonically, nor shall any information be supplied telephonically. Only the Information Officer shall have the mandate to disclose information in terms of this manual.

The requester must complete the prescribed form enclosed herewith, and submit same as well as payment of a request fee and a deposit (if applicable) to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address, fax number or electronic mail address as noted above.

The prescribed form must be filled in with sufficient information to enable the Information Officer to identify:

- a. the record or records requested; and
- b. the identity of the requester as indicated above.

The requester should indicate which form of access is required and specify a postal address of fax number of the requester in the Republic.

The requester must state that he/she requires the information in order to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state what the nature of the right is so to be exercised or protected. The requester must clearly specify why the record is necessary to exercise or protect such a right (section 53(2)(d)).

Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd will process the request within 30 (thirty) days, unless the requester has stated special reasons to the satisfaction of the Information Officer that circumstances dictate that the above time periods not be complied with.

The requester shall be advised whether access is granted or denied in writing. If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, the requester will be obliged to state in which manner and the particulars required.

If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer (section 53(2)(f)).

If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally.

The requester must pay the prescribed fee, before any further processing can take place.

All information as listed herein should be provided and failing which the process will be delayed until the required information is provided. The prescribed time periods will not commence until the requester has furnished all the necessary and required information. The Information Officer shall sever a record, if possible, and grant only access to that portion requested and which is not prohibited from being disclosed.

16. REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS

Grounds to Refuse Access: A private body such as Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd is entitled to refuse a request for information.

The main grounds for Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd to refuse a request for information relates to the following:

- Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person or a deceased person (section 63) or a juristic person, as included in the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural or juristic person.
- Mandatory protection of personal information and for disclosure of any personal information to, in addition to any other legislative, regulatory or contractual agreements, comply with the provisions of the Protection of Personal Information.
- Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party (section 64) if the record contains
 - trade secrets of the third party;

- financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;
- information disclosed in confidence by a third party to Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
- mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties (section 65) if it is protected in terms of any agreement;
- mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property (section 66);
- mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings (section 67).
- The commercial activities (section 68) of a private body, such as Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd, which may include, but not be limited to
 - trade secrets of Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd;
 - financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd;
 - information which, if disclosed could put Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - any computer program which is owned by Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd, and which is protected by copyright;
 - the research information (section 69) of Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage.
- Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.
- All requests for information will be assessed on their own merits and in accordance with the applicable legal principles and legislation.

- If a requested record cannot be found or if the record does not exist, the Information Officer shall, by way of an affidavit or affirmation, notify the requester that it is not possible to give access to the requested record. Such a notice will be regarded as a decision to refuse a request for access to the record concerned for the purpose of the Act. If the record should later be found, the requester shall be given access to the record in the manner stipulated by the requester in the prescribed form, unless the Information Officer refuses access to such record.

17. REMEDIES AVAILABLE SHOULD AUTOMA MULTI STYRENE (PTY) LTD REFUSES A REQUEST

Internal Remedies: Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd does not have internal appeal procedures. The decision made by the Information Officer is final. Requesters will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused, and the requestor is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the Information Officer.

External Remedies: A requestor that is dissatisfied with the Information Officer's refusal to disclose information, may within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, may apply to a Court for relief. For purposes of the Act, the Courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status and a Magistrate's Court designated by the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development and which is presided over by a designated Magistrate.

18. PRESCRIBED FEES (SECTION 51(1)(F))

Fees Provided by the Act:

The Act provides for two types of fees, namely:

- a. A request fee, which is a form of administration fee to be paid by all requesters except personal requesters, before the request is considered and is not refundable; and
- b. An access fee, which is paid by all requesters in the event that a request for access is granted. This fee is inclusive of costs involved by the private body in obtaining and preparing a record for delivery to the requester.

When the request is received by the Information Officer, such officer shall by notice require the requester, other than a personal requester, to pay the prescribed request fee, before further processing of the request (section 54(1)).

If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the Information Officer shall notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.

The Information Officer shall withhold a record until the requester has paid the fees as indicated below.

A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee that is calculated to include, where applicable, the request fee, the process fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the request form.

If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer concerned must repay the deposit to the requester

19. REPRODUCTION FEE

Where Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd has voluntarily provided the Minister with a list of categories of records that will automatically be made available to any person requesting access thereto, the only charge that may be levied for obtaining such records, will be a fee for reproduction of the record in question.

- The 30 (thirty) day period within which Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than (30) thirty days if the request is for a large number of information, or the request requires a search for information held at another office of Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30 (thirty) day period.
- Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd will notify the requester in writing should an extension be sought.

21. PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION THAT IS PROCESSED BY AUTOMA MULTI STYRENE (PTY) LTD

Chapter 3 of POPIA provides for the minimum Conditions for Lawful Processing of Personal Information by a Responsible Party. These conditions may not be derogated from unless specific exclusions apply as outlined in POPIA.

Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd needs Personal Information relating to both individual and juristic persons in order to carry out its business and organisational functions. The manner in which this information is processed and the purpose for which it is processed is determined by Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd. Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd is accordingly a Responsible Party for the purposes of POPIA and will ensure that the Personal Information of a Data Subject

- is processed lawfully, fairly and transparently. This includes the provision of appropriate information to Data Subjects when their data is collected by Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd, in the form of privacy or data collection notices. Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd must also have a legal basis (for example, consent) to process Personal Information;
- is processed only for the purposes for which it was collected;
- will not be processed for a secondary purpose unless that processing is compatible with the original purpose;
- is adequate, relevant and not excessive for the purposes for which it was collected;
- is accurate and kept up to date;
- will not be kept for longer than necessary;
- is processed in accordance with integrity and confidentiality principles; this includes physical and organisational measures to ensure that Personal Information, in both physical and electronic form, are subject to an appropriate level of security when stored, used and communicated by Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd, in order to protect against access and acquisition by unauthorised persons and accidental loss, destruction or damage;

- is processed in accordance with the rights of Data Subjects, where applicable. Data Subjects have the right to:
 - be notified that their Personal Information is being collected by Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd. The Data Subject also has the right to be notified in the event of a data breach;
 - know whether Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd holds Personal Information about them, and to access that information. Any request for information must be handled in accordance with the provisions of this Manual;
 - request the correction or deletion of inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading or unlawfully obtained personal information;
 - object to Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd's use of their Personal Information and request the deletion of such Personal Information (deletion would be subject to Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd's record keeping requirements);
 - object to the processing of Personal Information for purposes of direct marketing by means of unsolicited electronic communications. In this regard, Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd does not partake in direct marketing communications via 3rd parties to any Data Subject (such as employees and clients), nor will Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd make available personal information of Data Subjects, to companies in this regard; and
 - complain to the Information Regulator regarding an alleged infringement of any of the rights protected under POPI and to institute civil proceedings regarding the alleged non-compliance with the protection of his, her or its personal information.

Purpose of the Processing of Personal Information by the Company: As outlined above, Personal Information may only be processed for a specific purpose. The purposes for which Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd processes or will process Personal Information is set out in Part 1 of Appendix 2.

Categories of Data Subjects and Personal Information/special Personal Information relating thereto: As per section 1 of POPI, a Data Subject may either be a natural or a juristic person. Part 2 of Appendix 2 sets out the various categories of Data Subjects that Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd processes personal Information on and the types of personal information relating thereto.

Recipients of Personal Information: Part 3 of Appendix 2 outlines the recipients to whom Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd may provide a Data Subjects Personal Information to.

Cross-border flows of Personal Information: Section 72 of POPIA provides that Personal Information may only be transferred out of the Republic of South Africa if the:

- recipient country can offer such data an “adequate level” of protection. This means that its data privacy laws must be substantially similar to the Conditions for Lawful Processing as contained in POPI; or
- Data Subject consents to the transfer of their Personal Information; or
- transfer is necessary for the performance of a contractual obligation between the Data Subject and the Responsible Party; or
- transfer is necessary for the performance of a contractual obligation between the Responsible Party and a third party, in the interests of the Data Subject; or
- the transfer is for the benefit of the Data Subject, and it is not reasonably practicable to obtain the consent of the Data Subject, and if it were, the Data Subject, would in all likelihood provide such consent.

Part 4 of Appendix 2 sets out the planned cross-border transfers of Personal Information and the condition from above that applies thereto.

Description of information security measures to be implemented by Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd: Part 5 of Appendix 2 sets out the types of security measures to implemented by Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd in order to ensure that Personal Information is respected and protected. A preliminary assessment of the suitability of the information security measures implemented or to be implemented by Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd may be conducted in order to ensure that the Personal Information that is processed by Automa Multi Styrene (Pty) Ltd is safeguarded and Processed in accordance with the Conditions for Lawful Processing.

Objection to the Processing of Personal Information by a Data Subject: Section 11 (3) of POPI and regulation 2 of the POPIA Regulations provides that a Data Subject may, at any time object to the Processing of his/her/its Personal Information in the prescribed form attached to this manual as Appendix 3 subject to exceptions contained in POPIA.

Request for correction or deletion of Personal Information: Section 24 of POPI and regulation 3 of the POPI Regulations provides that a Data Subject may request for their Personal Information to be corrected/deleted in the prescribed form attached as Appendix 4 to this Manual.

Availability and Updating of the PAIA Manual: Regulation Number R187 of 15 February 2002,
